

Vivi Yulaswati

Senior Advisor to the Minister of National Development Planning for Social Affairs and Poverty Reduction, and Head of National Secretariat for SDGs, Ministry of National Development Planning Indonesia/Bappenas

As a Senior Advisor to the Minister of National Development Planning for Social Affairs and Poverty Reduction, Vivi's main responsibility is doing analysis and providing advises to the minister on social issues and poverty reduction and strategies. She has long experience in designing Indonesian anti poverty programs including Community Driven Development, Conditional Cash Transfer, and some subsidy reforms. She has major contribution in the development of the National Social Security System, National Strategy for Financial Inclusion, Government to Person (G2P) payment transformation, and comprehensive Social Protection framework.

She is currently also as the Head of the National Secretariate for the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). She led the development of the Indonesia's VNR, SDGs Road Map, and SDGs National Action Plan.

She holds PhD in Planning and Development from University of Southern California (2004), Master in Urban and Regional Planning from University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA (1999), bachelor from University of Indonesia (1991); and took many courses in social protection, evaluation, change management, and digital transformation.