

Pranav Kumar
Investment Director, LeapFrog

Pranav Kumar is an Investment Director at LeapFrog, an impact focused growth equity fund that invests in growth stage fintech, financial services and healthcare companies in South Asia, SE Asia, and Africa.

LeapFrog has had $2 billion of capital committed and invests $20-75 million for majority or influential minority stakes in growing companies that have exceptional management teams and are focused on providing services that address the needs of emerging consumers. LeapFrog's current portfolio of companies reaches 174 emerging consumers, most of whom are accessing formal insurance, savings, credit, remittances, or healthcare for the first time.

Pranav's role involves sourcing, evaluating, and managing investments in Asia. He currently serves on the boards of LeapFrog portfolio companies NeoGrowth and Dvara KGFS. Prior to joining LeapFrog in 2016, Pranav worked at the World Bank Group and before that he was an Engagement Manager at McKinsey & Company.
